

Company: Stillpoint Yoga and Float

Job Title: Work Exchange (WE)

Salary: Free yoga at Stillpoint Yoga and Float

Location: 600 Clark Avenue, King of Prussia, PA

Job Description & Expectations of Work Exchange:

- WE must arrive at least thirty minutes prior to the start of class, stay during class, and stay after class for approximately thirty minutes.
- Responsible for: checking in students to class, taking payments as needed, answering phone and responding to calls. If opening, proper procedure to set up the studio rooms and front desk are expected. If closing, proper procedure to clean up the studio rooms and front desk are expected. Light clean up around the studio area, hallways, reception, and bathroom, as needed.
 - Please follow WE guidelines found in a binder at the desk regarding procedures on how to open and close the studio.
- WE is expected to work no less than two shifts per week, but is welcome to work as many shifts as you'd like/are able.
- For any non-urgent questions, please email Stillpoint Studio Manager: julia@stillpointyogafloat.com
- For any urgent questions, please call/text Dianne (number found in front desk binder).
- When coverage for a shift is needed, please use sub list provided by email to request a sub (more information will be provided separately regarding sub list). For emergency subs (within 12-24 hours of scheduled shift), please send email indicating urgency, AND send a text message to Dianne & Julia.
- WE with at least two weekly permanent shifts on the schedule are able to practice at the studio for free. Please practice as often as you'd like as we love to have our staff immersed into our community!
- For WE with less than two weekly permanent shifts, free practice is allowed only once per scheduled shift (i.e. one shift per week = one free class per week). Practice with us any time using our student/senior discounted rate.
- Discounts are available on certain studio events (discounts vary per event).